29 February 2012

Dear Information Professional,

Greetings!

The Association of Special Libraries of the Philippines (ASLP), Inc. will have its second National Congress of Special Libraries of the Philippines with the theme, "Achieving a Balanced Scorecard: Best Practices in Philippine Special Libraries" on August 2-3, 2012 at the Economic and Financial Learning Center (EFLC) Audio-Visual Room – Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas, Roxas Blvd., Manila.

The objectives of the congress are as follows:

- to update the librarians and information professionals of the current status of special libraries in the Philippines;
- to showcase the best practices achieved by the highly recognized special libraries in the country;
- to share the excellent and innovative experiences that special libraries in the Philippines already established; and
- to promote the outstanding special libraries in the country.

Highly regarded resource persons in the field are invited to share their expertise and knowledge on various topics on Philippine special libraries.

Librarians, library administrators, archivists, record officers, support staff, teachers and students of Library & Information Science, consultants and other information professionals are invited to attend the said congress.

Fees:

Number of Days	Active Member	Non-members
2-day congress	2, 000	2, 500

There will only be 70 slots for this congress. Kindly confirm and pay in advance. Participants are requested to book for their own accommodation. List of accommodations are listed on our site.

Detailed information can be found here:
