Dear Colleagues:

Have you ever seen the original manuscript of Noli and Fili or the latest collection of the museums in Metro Manila? Have you ever chance upon the latest innovations at the foreign cultural centers in the country or the state of the art technology installed at the EFLC of the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas?

This is now your chance to visit these institutions and learn beyond the borders of your own.

Come and join the ASLP on the Go: Tour of Local and Foreign Cultural Center Libraries, Museums and Archives in Metro Manila on July 14-15, 2011.

The observation and study tour aims to:

- have a better understanding and appreciation of work involved in libraries and information centers through observation
- familiarize with the new trends in information services and collection development through actual interaction with the experts
- develop and establish library linkages and networking
- learn the latest techniques in preservation and conservation of archival materials and
- see the latest innovation in foreign cultural center libraries

Librarians, library administrators, archivists, record officers, support staff, teachers and students of Library & Information Science, and other information professionals are invited to join the tour.
