

NETWORKING with Local Research Centers to Enrich MULTICULTURAL Services and Resources

VENUS P. IBARRA-GUYOS

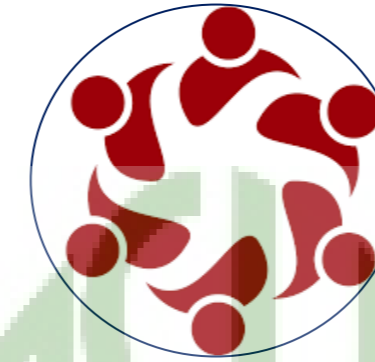

University of Saint Louis

Our Program for Today

Objective of the Session

Networking and Collaboration

Killers and Enablers of Collaboration

Benefits of Networking

Little Workshop

Open Forum

The logo of the Association of Special Libraries of the Philippines is centered in the background. It features a shield with a book, a lamp, and a scale, surrounded by a laurel wreath. Above the shield is a flag on a pole. The text "ASSOCIATION OF SPECIAL LIBRARIES OF THE PHILIPPINES" is written across the shield.

Objective

At the end of the lecture/workshop, participants will know the role and importance of networking with other institutions such as local research centers in embarking multiculturalism in their respective libraries.

“Academic isolation has long been impractical; in today’s world, it is impossible.

- Herman B. Wells, President of Indiana University

“At the time when yesterday’s bright new fact becomes today’s doubt and tomorrow’s myth, no single institution has the resources to go it alone. The present times demand cooperation. ”

- Herman B. Wells, President of Indiana University
